SUNDAY MORNING.
THOUGHTS DURING SERVICE.

Too early, of course! How provoking!
I told Ma just how it would be.
I might as well have on a wrapper.
For there's not a soul here yet to see.
There! Sue Delaplaine's pew is empty—
I declare if it isn't too bad!
I know my suit cost more than her's did,
And I wanted to see her look mad.
I do think that sexton's too stupid—
He's put some one else in our pew—
And the girl's dress just kills mine completely;
Now what am I going to do?
The psalter, and Sue isn't here yet!
I don't care, I think it's a sin.
For people to get late to service.
Just to make a great show coming in.
Perhaps she's sick, and can't get here—
She said she'd be here after her fustling!
I declare it would serve her just right.
Oh, you've got here at last, my dear, have you?
Well, I don't think you need be so proud
Of that bouquet, if Viriot did make it.
It's horrid fast-looking and loud.
What a dress!—for a girl in her senses
To go on the street in light blue!
And those coat-sleeves—they wore them last Summer—
Don't doubt, though, that she thinks they're new.

Mrs. Gray's polonaise was imported—
So dreadful!—a minister's wife,
And thinking so much about fashion!
A pretty example of life!
The altar dressed sweetly—I wonder
Who sent those white flowers for the font—
Some girl who's gone on the assistant—
I don't think it was Bessie Lamont.
Just look at her now, little haubing!
So devout—I suppose she don't know
That she's bending her head too far over
And the ends of her switches all show.
What a sight Mrs. Ward is this morning!
That woman will kill me some day.
With her horrible laces and crinoline,
Why will she do those things dress so gay?
And there's Jenny Wells with Fred Tracy—
She's engaged to him now—horrid thing!
Dear me! I'd keep on my glove sometimes,
If I did have a solitary ring!
How can this girl next to me act so—
The way that she turns round and stares,
And then makes remarks about people;
She'd better be saying her prayers.
Oh dear, what a dreadful long sermon!
He must love to hear himself talk!
And it's after twelve now,—how provoking!
I wanted to have a nice walk.
Through at last. Well, it isn't so dreadful
After all, for we don't die till one.
How can people say church is poky!
So wicked!—I think it's real fun.
—Sermon for July.

GROFFET, of the Minneapolis Tribune, heard some one repeat Walt Whitman's poetic offering to Nellie Grant, and was so charmed with it that he went to the office and copied it off,
as nearly as he could remember, for publication.
The result is appended. It is lovely:

A KISS TO THE BRIDE.
Scarred, biliousness, undefined,
With venison from East and West,
And saleratus North and South,
And numerous other ingredients from Northeast and Southwest,
And several counties yet to hear from.
Through me, to-day, 1,000,000 tartans and hams, Waiting 2,000,000 clubs, 3,000,000 soul-felt sweats,
With 40,000,000 reserve fund in the treasury,
—Tender and true remains the warm that yields thee.

Clear sun by day; bright stars at night, with rising barometer in the morning and increasing cloudiness over the lower lake region, and possibly rain or snow over the latter.

Queer girl—through me the ancient rye-juice,
too.
For the New World, through me at distillery
prices, the old, attenuated, ancient, vena-erable, anti-rosade wedding greeting.
O youth and health! O sweet Missouri rose!
O bonny bride! O almighty greenback!
O much! O more! Ove everybody, with nothing where with to redeem?
Yield thy red cheeks, thy lips, mouth, palate,
tongue, trachea, toulis, pharynx, larynx, news, links, to-day.

Saturday, May 28, 1874.
Unto a nation's loving smile.

WHAT WILT MAN

MAXNERS at CROQUET.—There is no one spot where well-bred people are apt to approach so near to ill-breeding, as on the Croquet ground. The cause of the trouble must inhere in the game,—which yet appears to be of the most simple and refined order,—for other out-door sports fail to irritate the feelings or ruffle the temper as it does. It is as if some tiny imp of discord pervaded the fields, devoting himself to the task of drawing to the surface whatever is contrary in the disposition of the players. We have seen girls go almost into hysterics, and young men become sullen or disputatious over a paltry "croquet" or a wicked faultily run. The game intended solely for amusement becomes the source of disagreement and wrangling, spoiling all pleasure for the peace-loving, as well as for the contentious.

The origin of most Croquet disputes lies in the diverse understanding of the rules. Nearly as many manuals are published as there are games played, and rarely is a match arranged where the players have all learned of the same authority; hence the difference of opinion. The sole way to avoid dissensions is to select the best book on the subject and make its decisions final on mooted points. It does not matter if a different authority be used on the every ground (though for those playing much together it is more satisfactory to have the same) provided it is regarded as an authority before a match be begun. But it does matter very much that persons meeting for pleasure should conduct themselves as not only to banish pleasure, but to lose their friends' and their own respect. —Sermon for July.

WASHINGTON'S STRENGTH.—A correspondent, writing of the muscular strength of Gen.
Washington, gives as one proof of his great strength an anecdote as published as there are the Washington farm and throwing a stone across the Rappahannock river. The writer says this feat had not been performed before nor since that instance.

DRUGS AND CHEMICALS.

Nearly all diseases originate from Indigestion and Torpidity of the Liver, and relief is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is Regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. Want of action in the Liver causes Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Chills, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the mouth, bilious attacks, palpitation of the heart, depression of spirits, or the pitting of the liver, and a hundred other symptoms, for which SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is the best remedy that has ever been discovered. Its acts mildly, effectually, and being a simple vegetable compound, can do no injury in any quantity. It has been used for FORTY YEARS, and hundreds of the good and great from all parts of the country will vouch for its being the purest and best.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR,
OR MEDICINE,
Is harmless,
Is a chronic violent medicine,
Is sure to cure if taken regularly,
Is not intoxicating beverage,
Is a faultless family medicine,
Is the cheapest medicine in the world,
Is given with safety and with the happiest results to the most delicate infant,
Does not interfere with business,
Does not disarrange the system,
Takes the place of Quinine and Bitters of every kind,
Contains the simplest and best remedies.
